HOW TO USE THIS FILING GUIDE

This filing guide will assist you with completing your Colorado Income Tax Return. Once you finish the form, file it with a computer, smartphone, or tablet using our free and secure Revenue Online service at www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline. Or, you may file using private e-file software or with a paid tax preparer. By filing your return electronically, you significantly reduce the chance of errors and you will receive your refund much faster. If you cannot file electronically for any reason, mail the enclosed forms as instructed.

Please read through this guide before starting your return.

The following symbols appear throughout this guide and point out important information, reminders, and changes to tax rules.

This points out a topic that is the source of common filing errors. Filing your return on Revenue Online will limit errors somewhat; however, it is important to understand the information on your return. Errors cause processing delays and erroneous bills.

Several subtractions and tax credits require you to provide supporting documentation. This symbol points out those requirements. If the additional documentation is not provided, it will cause processing delays or denial of the credit/subtraction. These documents can be scanned and attached to your Revenue Online filing, mailed with the DR 1778, or attached to your paper return.

In-depth tax information is available in our easy to understand FYI Publications, which include examples and worksheets. This symbol lets you know when such a publication is available for a subject. All FYI Publications are available at www.TaxColorado.com the official Colorado Taxation Web site.

Filing Information

Who Must File This Tax Return

Each year you must evaluate if you should file a Colorado income tax return. Generally, you must file this return if you were:

- A full-year resident of Colorado; or
  - A part-year Colorado resident who receives taxable income while residing here; or
  - Not a resident of Colorado, but receives income from sources within Colorado;
- and
- Are required to file a federal income tax return with the IRS for this year; or
  - Will have a Colorado income tax liability for this year.

Colorado residents must file this return if they file an income tax return with the IRS, even if they do not have a Colorado tax liability. Otherwise, the Department may file a return on your behalf and our return might not consider your unique tax situation. Also, the only way to determine if you are entitled to a refund is to file a return.

Due Date

Form 104 and any tax payment owed are due April 17, 2012. Revenue Online will accept returns as timely filed until midnight. Returns that are mailed must be postmarked by April 17. An automatic extension to file is granted until October 15th, but there is no extension to pay. See page 21 for more information.

Deceased Persons

Legal representatives and surviving spouses may file a return on behalf of a deceased person. Complete the return as usual and indicate the deceased status on the return. If filing using Revenue Online, complete the Third Party Designee portion of the return. Submit a copy of the death certificate using Revenue Online or the DR 1778. To avoid problems when filing on paper, you must check the box next to the name of the deceased person, and write "DECEASED" in large letters in the white space above the tax year of the return, write "FILING AS SURVIVING SPOUSE" or "FILING AS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE" after your signature, and attach Form DR 0102 and a copy of the death certificate to the return.

To claim a refund on behalf a deceased person, complete form DR 0102 and submit it, as well as a copy of the death certificate, when filing the return.

Filing Status

You must file using the same filing status on both your federal and Colorado income tax returns. For Married Filing Joint, you must list the taxpayer names in the same order on both the federal and Colorado returns. For married filing separate, do not list your spouse's name or SSN on the return.

Line by Line Instructions

First, complete the federal income tax return you will file with the IRS. You must complete your federal return first because you will use information from that return on your Colorado income tax return.

Colorado income tax is based on your federal taxable income, which has already considered your exemptions and deductions.

Residency Status

Check the appropriate box to designate your residency status. If Married Filing Joint, and one person is a full-year Colorado resident and the other is either a part-year resident or a nonresident, check the Part-Year Resident/Nonresident box.

FYI Part-Year Colorado Residents and Nonresidents

Tax is prorated so that it is calculated only on income received in Colorado or from sources within Colorado. We recommend you review FYI Publication—Income 6 if this applies to you. You will calculate your prorated tax by completing Form 104PN.

FYI Persons Traveling or Residing Abroad

If you are traveling or residing outside the United States on April 17, the deadline for filing your return is June 15, 2012. If you need an additional four months to file your return, you will automatically have until October 15, 2012 to file. Interest is due on any payment received after April 17, 2012. To avoid any late payment penalties you must pay 90% of your tax liability by June 15, 2012. When filing your return, mark the appropriate box on Revenue Online or paper return.

FYI Active Duty Military

Residency is determined by your Home of Record, which means you remain a resident of the state where you enlisted unless you have officially changed your Home of Record with your branch of the military. Your Home of Record can be found on your DD214 or Leave and Earnings Statement. We recommend you read FYI Publication—Income 21 if this applies to you.

Those with a Colorado Home of Record should file this return, even if stationed elsewhere. Those serving abroad or outside the USA at least 305 days of the year may file as a nonresident. You must check the nonresident status-305 day exception box on Form 104PN.

Those with a Home of Record from any other state, but who are stationed in Colorado, are not required to pay Colorado tax on their military income. However, any non-military income received while stationed in Colorado is taxable here (e.g. part-time work, rent payments received, etc.).

Those who were married to a serviceperson at the time of enlistment can also maintain their spouse's Home of Record for tax purposes, if holding their own job in Colorado. You must complete the DR 1059 and submit it to your employer when you are hired. Submit a copy of the DR 1059 and your military ID card on Revenue Online, with the DR 1778, or, if filing on paper, attached to your return. You must complete a new DR 1059 each calendar year.

FYI Name and Address

Provide your name, mailing address, and Social Security number in the provided spaces. If filing Married Filing Joint, provide the spouse information where prompted. Provide the spouse information ONLY if filing a joint return, otherwise leave blank. All Departmental correspondence will be mailed to the mailing address provided. We recommend you read FYI Publication—General 2 for the Privacy Act Notice.

DO NOT enter your total income or wages on this line—doing so will make your tax too high. The Department will compare the amount you list here to the return you file with the IRS, so be very careful to complete this correctly.

2 Refer to your federal income tax return to complete this line:

- 1040EZ Form: enter $0

LINE*8*FYI Spouse Pension and Annuity Subtraction

LIMITATION: The total credits you claim on line 49 of this Form 104CR are non-refundable credits so the total credits used may not exceed the total tax reported on lines 15 and 16 of your income tax return, Form 104. Most unused 2011 credits can be carried forward to tax year 2012. If the total credits available exceed the total tax due for 2011, or if you are carrying forward credits that cannot be used in 2011, list the credit type(s) and excess amount(s) on line 50.

COMMON ISSUES

Did Not Receive W-2 Statement from your employer

- Contact your employer to request a copy; or
- Your final paycheck stub should list the year-to-date (YTD) Colorado wages and withholding, which can be used to file using Revenue Online. Or, if filing a paper return, complete a Substitute W-2, DR 0084 and attach it to your return; or
- If neither option above works, contact the IRS or the Department of Revenue, who might have your W-2 information available.

Record Retention

Keep all documentation you used to prepare your return at least 4 years after the due date, which is the statute of limitations for the Department to make changes to your return. However, if the Department does not receive your return, they may file one on your behalf using the best information available. There is no statute of limitations if a return is not filed.

Correcting Errors or Changing a Return

The amended return, Form 104X, should be completed to make any changes or corrections to your original return. Make sure that you use the appropriate form that matches the tax year you are amending. Using a 104X from a different year will cause problems on your account. You may file Form 104X electronically even if you filed your original return on paper using Revenue Online or mail in the paper amended return. If you are changing your Colorado return because the IRS made changes to your federal return, you must file Form 104X within 30 days of being notified by the IRS. You must amend your Colorado return in this case, even if there is no net change to your tax liability.

Estimated Tax Requirements

If you expect next year's Colorado tax liability to be greater than $1,000 after subtracting credits, you should make estimated tax payments using Form 104EP. We recommend that you read FYI Publication—Income 51 for additional information.

Filing Errors and Incomplete Information

It is important to read all the information available for your specific tax situation, and to submit all required documentation with your return. Failure to do so may result in delayed processing of your return and refund. We recommend that you file using Revenue Online to avoid common mathematical errors. You may also opt to use a commercial tax preparation software program at home or to use a paid tax professional to help you complete your return.

Federal Credit and Colorado Insurance Programs

Individuals whose income does not exceed certain thresholds and/or have qualifying children may be eligible for a refund resulting from the federal Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and/or low-cost health insurance through Child Health Plan Plus (CHP+). You may obtain additional information regarding the EITC online at www.irs.gov or by calling Colorado United Way at 211. Additional information regarding CHP+ can be found online at <http://www.cchp.org/> or by calling 1-800-359-1991.

AUTOMATIC FILING EXTENSION

General Information

If you are unable to file your Colorado income tax return by April 17, 2012, you may file under extension. This means you may file your return by October 15, 2012. There is no form to submit to get approval to file the Colorado return by October 15. However, the extension of time to file DOES NOT allow you to extend your payment due date. You must pay at least 90% of your tax liability by April 17 and the remainder by October 15 to avoid delinquent payment penalties. The following worksheet will help you determine if you have met the 90% rule already, or if you need to remit payment with the voucher below.

Penalties and Interest

If the 90% rule is NOT met by April 17, 2012, then delinquent penalty and interest will be assessed when you file your return. If 90% or more of your tax liability is paid by April 17, and the remaining balance is paid by October 15, no penalty will be assessed. However, you will be billed interest, but only on the amount being paid by October 15.

If after April 17, you determine that you underpaid your estimated tax you should pay the additional tax as soon as possible to avoid further accumulation of estimated tax penalty and/or interest. Form DR 0158-I can be used to remit any supplemental estimated tax. Be sure to send one DR 0158-I for supplemental estimated tax, and one DR 0158-I to reach the 90% rule if both apply to you.

Persons Traveling or Residing Abroad

If you are traveling or residing outside the United States on April 17, the deadline for filing your return is June 15, 2012. If you need an additional four months to file your return, you will automatically have until October 15, 2012 to file. Interest is due on any payment received after April 17, 2012. To avoid any late payment penalties you must pay 90% of your tax liability by June 15, 2012. When filing your return, mark the appropriate box on Revenue Online or paper return.

Pay Electronically

Taxpayers can now visit www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline to pay online. Online payments reduce errors and provide instant payment confirmation. Revenue Online also allows users to submit various forms and to monitor their tax account.

EFT Debit and EFT Credit options are free services offered by the Department. EFT services require pre-registration before payments can be made. Visit www.Colorado.gov/revenue/eft for more information. Form 158-I is not required if an online payment is made. Please be advised that a nominal processing fee may apply to electronic payments.

STATE OF COLORADO

Message from the Executive Director

The Department of Revenue is working to find state budget savings wherever possible. We have made services available for many years that help taxpayers file their taxes easily and efficiently. This year we have opened a new service called Revenue Online, a one-stop, secure, streamlined Web site where you file returns and make payments online by e-check or credit card. With Revenue Online you can also sign up for account access, much the same way you sign up for online banking.

When you sign up to access your tax account online, you can view the returns you've filed, see your payment history, change your address, view your 1099-Gs, check your refund status, request a payment plan, file a protest, amend your return, upload documentation to go with your electronic filing, add Third Party access to your account, even view letters that you have received from the department.

It takes just a few minutes to sign up for Revenue Online. But you'll be pleased to see everything you can do to immediately respond to and resolve issues with your tax account.

Visit www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline to file your return and sign up for account access.

About two-thirds of Colorado's 2.3 million taxpayers have filed their income tax returns electronically. Filing online and requesting Direct Deposit of your refund gets your money back to you faster than paper filing. All our tax forms are on our Colorado Taxation Web site, www.TaxColorado.com so that you may download anything you need if you cannot file through Revenue Online. If you don't have Internet access, we can send forms to you upon request. See page 16 for information about how to contact us.

The Department of Revenue is committed to finding ways to make tax filing easy for you while we work to save tax administration dollars. We believe Revenue Online will help us meet these goals and make state funding available for the services our citizens want and need.

Sincerely,

CONSUMER USE TAX

What is Consumer Use tax?

In general, purchases are subject to tax. Most people are familiar with the sales tax added to the bottom of their receipts. However, when you buy something without paying sales tax to the seller, you must pay the tax yourself. This is known as consumer use tax. Often, sales tax is not charged on merchandise purchased online or from a catalog, and therefore the purchase would be subject to consumer use tax. Additional information, including exemption information, can be found on the official Colorado Taxation Web site www.TaxColorado.com > Other Taxes > Consumer Use Tax.

The Department of Revenue collects the 2.9% Colorado state tax, as well as certain special district use taxes for which you may be liable.

When is Consumer Use tax due?

Consumer use tax can be paid by individuals on an annual basis, similarly to how you file your individual income tax return. Any merchandise purchased January to December that is subject to consumer use tax is due by April 15th the following year.

How to Pay Consumer Use tax

File the tax and make the payment through Revenue Online. Go to www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline > Individual > File a Return > Consumer Use Tax. Revenue Online will let you know which local use taxes are required and will give you the appropriate tax rates.

The non-game program receives no state tax dollars and depends on voluntary contributions.

Domestic Abuse Program Fund

Donations to this fund help support critical services provided by community-based domestic abuse programs across Colorado.
